

Syrus Samson

www.syrussamson.com

(289) 251-2204

syrus.samson99@gmail.com

Profile

Highly motivated web developer with experience in customer service and a certificate in project management from Durham College. Currently a last-year student in Web Development and Internet Applications with Algonquin College, where I have been named to the Dean's Honour List.

Education

Algonquin College — Web Development & Internet Applications

Current last-year student of college Web developer program, my skills include proficiency in HTML, CSS, JavaScript, as well as experience with back-end technologies such as MySQL and C# / .NET framework. Emphasis on responsive design and version control using Git.

Durham College (Remote), Certificate in Project Management — (2020)

Comprehensive Project Management certificate program covering essential principles and practices. Focus on scheduling, risk management, communication. Experience with project planning using Gantt charts and completing tasks using Agile methodology.

Experience

Directors Guild of Canada — Location Support (current)

Provided security for various film sets across the GTA. Maintained a constant and effective line of communication to head office along with daily audits and detailed event summaries.

Habitat for Humanity — Customer Service Representative

Trained volunteers with effective procedures for handling and sorting incoming merchandise, Facilitated the on-boarding process for new volunteers, providing training and guidance on standard operating procedures and best practices.

Skills

HTML, CSS, JavaScript, jQuery, React, Python, MySQL, Bootstrap, Tailwind, Skeleton, teamwork, communication, problem solving, adaptability, responsive design, debugging and unit testing, continuous learning, time management, creativity